

Kamala Harris

Vice-President

Kamala Harris

I was born on October 20, 1964 in Oakland California. My parents were immigrants from India and Jamaica. I have one sister named Maya.

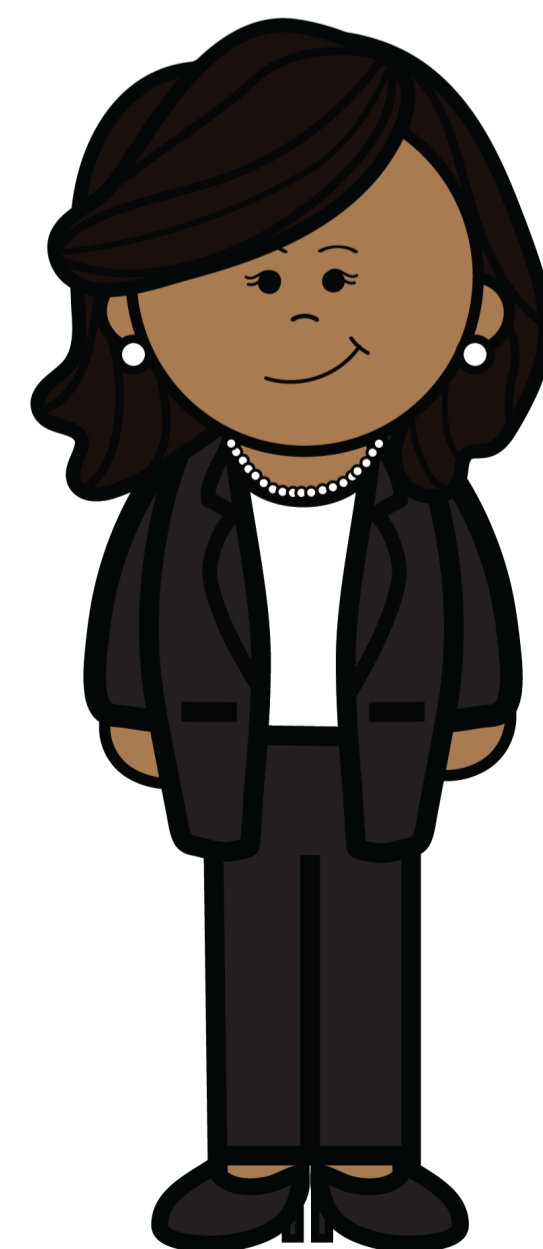

I went to Howard Univeristy for undergraduate school and UC Hastings College of Law for my Law Degree.

After college, I started working in San Fransisco in the District Attorney's office and eventually became the District Attorney. I then became the states Attorney General and then was voted into the United States Senate.

In August of 2020, I accepted Joe Biden's bid to be his running mate for the presidential election.

In November, we won the election and I became the first woman to serve in the White House.

“My mother would look at me and she’d say, ‘Kamala, you may be the first to do many things, but make sure you are not the last.’”
