AND CARDS

There are plenty of fun activities you can do with this Learning Emotions Activity Mats and Cards.

The blank faces have different skin tones with fun and colorful hairstyles. Allow your child to express their creativity by letting them choose which faces they would like to use.

You may laminate the blank faces and use play dough to or whiteboard markers to create the emotions.

The emoji cards may be used to make the selection of which emotions to work with more random and exciting. Or use them to teach basic emotions.

Black and white blank faces is awesome for drawing faces and coloring.
